Overview of the directors and officers liability insurance policy

The Company has entered into a directors and officers liability insurance policy as provided for in Article 430-3, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act with an insurance company, and renews the insurance policy every year. The insurance policy covers the legally mandated amount of indemnification and court costs arising from an insured person's assumption of liability incurred in the course of the performance of duties of insured persons and the receipt of claims pertaining to the pursuit of such liability.

However, there are certain reasons for coverage exclusion, such as an insured person's performance of an illegal act with full knowledge of its illegality is not covered, and measures have been put into place to ensure that the proper performance of duties of insured persons is not impaired.

The insured persons in the insurance policy are all of the Directors, corporate auditors and employees in management positions of the Company and its subsidiaries, and the full amount of the insurance premiums for the insurance policy is borne by the Company.
